

TRAINER'S PROFILE

ASHVINI PANDIAN

Consulting Partner for Blanchard Malaysia

Ashvini has come in to the team having had a diverse career in Law, Human Resource and the Performing Arts. She began her career as a lawyer in New Zealand before transitioning to the Canadian tech sector, specializing in Legal, Finance and Cybersecurity Engineering recruitment. An avid dancer from young, she has been dancing for over 20 years and has taught dance professionally since 2017, specializing in adult learners.

She has been licensed in several high-leverage programs including Blanchard's core training program the 'SLII', 'Self Leadership', and many other leadership effectiveness, personal development and productivity programs.

Her engaging presentation style has led her to be engaged with organisations in the education, e-commerce, legal, public sector and technology based. Her unique blend of experiences and perspectives have made her a much sought-after facilitator.

Among the industries that she has served are:

- Education
- E-commerce
- Legal
- Public Sector
- Technology
- HR & Recruitment
- Primary Industries